

Cheyenne Heritage Quilters Patchwork Update

JUNE 2017

Dedicated to encouraging and broadening quilter creativity, sharing quilting knowledge, exhibiting quilting accomplishments and contributing to the community

NOTE FROM OUR PRESIDENT: Rose Slatten

Happy June!
June, what a month, the first of Summer. Please, bring it on,

I love the Weddings and Graduations. All the outdoor activity, the flowers that are blooming, I'm such a sucker for all the flowers. The trees, oh my have you noticed the deciduous trees they are in their glory. Step outside, take a deep breath and just enjoy being alive.

It's time ladies, it really is, to get those quilts out you completed over winter and decide which ones you are hanging in our Quilt Show or perhaps you are completing the ones, or one you want to hang, like me. Maybe it's an older quilt you want to share this year. We want to see it. Think of all the ways you can be part of our annual Quilt Show. Contribute, Volunteer, Sell Tickets, it takes all of us to make it a Success.

Rose Slatten

SOCIAL: Daenette More: Dresden Plates. YOU'VE MADE IT HALF WAY!!!

Congratulations, we are at the midpoint of our Dresden Plate Challenge. As of this month you should have 5 different dresdens in your bag. Keep up the good work, as I see the ones that have been done I am amazed at how many different tops, sizes, and middles there can be. It is truly great, and you are learning a lot about dresdens, which is the object of this exercise. Next month I will demonstrate a different top that I haven't seen and give you the pattern. Boy are we going to have some beautiful quilts, or wall hangings or table runners. Life is good! Daenette

Quilts of Valor: Marilyn Lanham.

The sewing day for Quilts of Valor will be 6/15th at The Quilted Corner from 10-5. Bring your projects and enjoy sewing for a great cause. Any questions please call Marilyn at 635-9246 or 631-3623.

Carol Gardner - Please bring in some 10-inch quilt blocks to put in gift bags for the Quilt Show. The first 300 can receive a gift bag that come to the show.

Cathy James - I need you to pick up your ticket packets for the show each one has a picture of the incentive quilt. We have several who have not picked them up. You can turn in your money at any time.

Bea Dersham - You can still sign up for the quilt appraisals.

Program:

Our speaker for the meeting is Dana Jones, a journalist, author, and quilter. She talked about the ladies of Caohagan Island. They are amazing quilters. With the most basic of tools and gadgets not that we take for granted, they quilt with their hands. They use beautiful colors, animals with action, flowers, and palm trees. They quilt what they see. There are about 600 residents on the island and out of the 300 adults, 100 are quilt makers. The unusual thing is they quilt sitting down on the ground for many hours at a time, and sometimes squatting. I think many of us would not have that ability. They do not have templates, instead, they cut out what they want to use by sight. Dana brought quilts for sale and showed us many wonderful samples of what they make. Thank you, Dana, for showing us what possibilities are for people to quilt and enjoy the art of quilting.
