

Cheyenne Heritage Quilters Patchwork Update

SEPTEMBER 2018

Dedicated to encouraging and broadening quilter creativity, sharing quilting knowledge, exhibiting quilting accomplishments and contributing to the community

NOTE FROM OUR PRESIDENT Note from Mary Ellen Little

First of all, congratulations for an awesome quilt show!! Thank you to all who worked to make it a show to remember. We also have members who won ribbons at the fair. Does this mean we take a break from sewing and quilting? Maybe a little. Then it will be time to think about the holidays and making some great gifts or seasonal decorations. We have been invited by the Goshen County/Torrington quilters to attend their October on October 13th. I'll have details at the next meeting, basically we will do a show and tell featuring our guild activities as well as individual accomplishments.

The other thing coming up will be election of officers for next year. We will start talking about nominations at the next meeting, September 17th, and have elections at the October 1st meeting. Cathy James has agreed to be our president next year. Thank you Cathy. All the other elected offices are open. Please consider running for an office or committee head. Get your friends together and make it a group effort. The current board will be there to help you get started.

At the September 17th meeting we will learn about color theory from our presenter, Karen Hruby. What colors should I use for this project? What colors will go with this great fabric I found? Why do these colors work? Come to the meeting and find out the answers

THE QUILT SHOW

Thanks to everyone for making this year's will show a success. We had over 125 quilts on display and we estimate we had about 400 people attend the show. Although final numbers are not in yet, ticket sales were strong and the boutique looks to have done well too. Your quilts were all beautiful. I'm already looking forward to the 2020 show.

Thank you
Sue Frerich

Cindy Brick was the certified judge for our quilt show and she was so impressed with the Dresden Plate quilts that were completed by our members that she offered to be the curator for our guild. What this means is that she will be contacting the Rocky Mountain Quilt Museum and the Paducah Quilt Museum on our behalf in hopes that they would be willing to do a display of our quilts. She will make the final choice on which quilts would be submitted for consideration in the display. Our guild would be responsible for paying the insurance and shipping costs of the quilts.

EVENTS OF INTEREST

Southeast UFO Retreat      Cheyenne, WY      September 28-30 2018

Cindy Brick will be a judge at the Higher Ground Fair in Laramie, WY on September 22 and 23, 2018 from 9 am to 6 pm on Saturday and 9 am to 4 pm on Sunday. The Fair is at the Albany County Fairgrounds at 3510 South Third St. She asked me to let you know about the Fair and to come see it! Tickets are available on-line for less than at the door.

If you participated in the Dresden Plate Round Robin but did not have your Dresden plate quilt completed or entered in the quilt show, it may not be too late to be included in the Museum shows. Let me know if you are interested.

I am excited that CHQ has the potential of having quilts displayed in these venues. Cindy believes that the Rocky Mountain area is not showcased enough at Paducah and that we have a good chance of getting accepted. More information will be given in the next few months. Stay tuned!
