Cheyenne Heritage Quilter's Patchwork Update March 2019

Dedicated to encouraging and broadening quilter's creativity, sharing quilting knowledge, exhibiting quilting accomplishments and contributing to the community.

Note from the President

After our last CHQ Board meeting, I am looking forward to the programs which are planned for this year, and more upcoming events!

Even though we are not having a quilt show this year, we will be having an Opportunity Quilt! The pieced top has been donated and is now in the process of having an appliqué added, then will be quilted and bound. Of course, once it is ready, it will be revealed at one of our meetings. We will have the drawing in the Fall and the quilt will be displayed and tickets sold at Wyoming State Quilt Show to be held here in Cheyenne in July, we will also have it at the Laramie County Fair in order to sell tickets. Members will also be asked to support CHQ by selling and/or purchasing tickets as well as selling tickets at the State Guild Show and LC Fair. Having an Opportunity Quilt will raise some money for the Guild this year as well as keep CHQ's name in the public.

Community Quilts will be announcing two different dates that will be used to sew small items, probably no large quilts, but more table toppers, pillow cases, wall hangings, rug mugs, placemats, etc. for the Cheyenne Civic League's Christmas House. Christmas fabric which has been donated to CHQ will be used and of course, members can use any of their own stash. Money from items sold at Christmas House is donated to various charities in Cheyenne and this fits in with CHQ's goals of giving back to the Community. Start thinking of items you want to make to include in this worthwhile project.

Don't forget to sign-up for Sue Frerich's collage class to be held at Little Bear Inn as spaces are filling quickly.

Collage Quilt Class by Sue Frerich

CHQ hosting our first quilting class of the year. It will be to learn the Laura Heine collage technique. Our own Sue Frerich will be teaching the class in two sessions. The first session will be at the church during our regular meeting time on Monday, March 18, open sew night. The second session will be on Saturday, April 13, from 9am to 3pm at Little Bear Inn! Cost of the class is $30 ($35 for non-members) and will include lunch, provided by Little Bear.

You don't need to bring anything for the first session (at the church). During the short class you will receive a supply list (among other things you will need to purchase a Laura Heine collage pattern of your choice), instructions, and your homework assignment. This will only take about half an hour to an hour. The second session, at Little Bear, is when you'll start putting together your collage quilt.

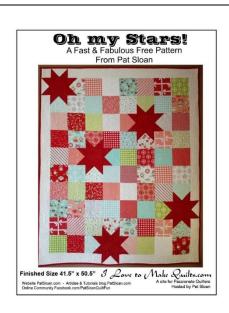

There is a lot of interest in the class, and we have decided to limit it to the first 30 people who pay for the class. Currently we have about 20 people interested. You can sign up and pay at our meetings or contact Sue directly. We're looking forward to a fun time!

Pat Sloan's website, has lots of free patterns. The one shown here is one of Genelle's favorites for baby quilts. In the search box type in Oh My Stars to get the pattern.

Pat also has several free Block of The Week patterns.

Feb. 4th Meeting Notes Neoma White, Secretary

Our program tonight was Luanne Roberts, trunk show. Luanne presented a very well received discussion and showing of her work.

She inherited her creative bug from her mom, Betty, a former member of CHQ. She learned embroidery from her grandma, who was very crippled with arthritis, but did fine work. Betty always made her clothes and Luanne was always fascinated with that process. Luanne got the fabric scraps to make doll clothes.

In the 70's, crewel work was the rage and Luanne entered a piece in the Duchess County Fair, New York and won first prize! Luanne also made costumes for a summer stock group and had the most fun working on My Fair Lady.

In 2003 she moved back to Wyoming and started quilting. She enjoys all types of embroidery: Brazilian, ribbon, etc. her Block of the Month kits have become Block of the Decade, as she embellished much more then the kits call for. The same is true of her wool work.

Then she found Pinterest....

Luanne has also taken a one-day class at the Royal School of Needlework in England. It was an amazing place. She learned white work satin stitch using only one thread of floss. (see the picture below). There are also needlework guilds that provide classes in Williamsburg, VA and Louisville, KY.

Final thoughts. There are no embroidery police. She really enjoys a podcast out of Yorkshire England called Stitchery Stories. Needle choice – finer is better. Use a frixion pen to mark work.

Community Quilt

Get to know your President - Cathy James

Cathy joined CHQ in 2015. She first served as our Librarian for 2 years, went on to be Treasurer for 2 years and is now serving as our President. Cathy worked very hard on the 2018 Quilt Show. She is also a member of the Wyoming State Quilt Guild.

Cathy grew up in Cheyenne, attended East High School and went on to UW to get a degree in Education. She got married while at UW and then moved to California. There she worked full time and took care of her family, not much time for quilting. She lived in California until 2014 when she retired from the Insurance business. She moved back here to become a caretaker for her sister, Janet. Cathy has one daughter here and one in Texas. She also has 3 grandchildren and a very friendly dog named Cocoa.

Cathy remembers sewing doll clothes with her mother when she was in the $3^{\rm rd}$ grade. She took her first quilting class around 1975 from an adult education program. They taught with cardboard templates and used any kind of fabric. At that time, she didn't catch the bug! It took until the 1990's for her to get serious about it. In 2006 Cathy and her daughter purchased a quilt store in California. Cathy made the samples for the store and enjoyed working with her daughter.

Cathy finds herself mainly interested in smaller quilted items. She likes to do embroidery panels and add borders to them for seasonal quilt decorations. Cathy considers herself a traditional quilter but is very interested in Art quilts. She also likes to do crossstitch, applique and crewel work. She is looking forward to the collage class coming up in April.

Cathy's choice for a free quilting pattern website is www.allpeoplequilt.com.

Community Quilts

Co-chair, Debbie Przymus 640-4101

Just a reminder, I challenge each member to make at least one quilt top to donate this year and each member that owns a quilting machine to quilt at least one. Wait - don't stress - we make it easy. Precut kits are available in a variety of sizes. Just piece the top and return at any meeting. Quilt tops will be prepped for quilting with the back pieced and batting provided.

This year we have joined forces to work on community guilts.

- Donna Dolan will be taking in the pieced tops to prep for quilting.
- Rose Slatten will distribute the completed guilts.
- Debbie Przymus will continue to host a Sew day on the first Wednesday of the month at the Library, Cottonwood room from 10-3. Lunch is on your own. Come for an hour or for the day. If possible, bring your sewing machine or Accuquilt cutter. We also need help sorting fabric, ironing, and prepping quilts for quilting.

Hope to see you there!

Community quilt workshop day. We welcome all members to come and join the fun. We have lots of kits that need to be sewn up and fabric that needs to be cut. Note: We meet the first Wednesday of the month at the Library, Cottonwood Rm. from 10 am - 3 pm.

Debbie has sent out a request for donations of solid color, neutral & Christmas fabrics. She would also like to have some backing fabric if you have any you could donate.

Please note that Debbie is allergic to cats so if you will let us know if your fabric has been around cats, we will make sure to take care of it.

On the last sew day they got 20 quilts prepped for quilting. 20 kids quilts have been donated to Blankets for Kids.

2019 – 2020 Round Tuit Mona Weeks, Chair

"AROUND TO IT"

FOR THIS YEARS' ROUND TUIT ACTIVITY, WE'RE GOING TO TRY SOMETHING A LITTLE BIT DIFFERENT!

PICK UP TO 5 PROJECTS THAT YOU'D REALLY LIKE TO COMPLETE. IT DOESN'T HAVE TO BE A PROJECT THAT YOU'VE STARTED TO PIECE YET. IT COULD BE A KIT THAT YOU'VE HAD IN YOUR SEWING ROOM FOR AGES THAT YOU JUST HAVEN'T GOTTEN "AROUND TO IT" YET. DOES ANYONE HAVE A ROW BY ROW KIT IN A DRAWER THAT THEY HAVE NEVER OPENED?? WHAT ABOUT THAT PATTERN YOU BOUGHT AT QUILT AFFAIR FOUR YEARS AGO BUT HAVEN'T GOTTEN AROUND TO YET??

YOU WILL GET MORE CREDIT FOR THE MORE THAT NEEDS TO BE COMPLETED. YOU WILL GET ONE POINT (NAME IN THE HAT) FOR EACH ITEM THAT GETS COMPLETED. SO, THE MORE TIMES YOUR NAME IS IN THE HAT, THE GREATER YOUR CHANCE OF WINNING A PRIZE—TO BE GIVEN AT THE END OF THE YEAR.

LET'S HAVE SOME FUN WITH THIS AND GET A PROJECT COMPLETED THAT YOU NEVER THOUGHT YOU'D EVER GET DONE!

For new members I thought I would add this description of our Round Tuit program.

Round Tuit - This is our group's effort to encourage members to finish UFOs (Unfinished objects) that are hanging around the house. Members fill out a card promising to finish a specific project by the deadline - usually in the spring. As the projects are finished and shown at a club meeting, the Round Tuit Chairman marks it off, and enters that member in a drawing. We've had some fun prizes, so it is certainly worth joining in the fun of this project. And there have never been any penalties for not finishing. The Round Tuit chairman for the year is Mona Weeks.

WSQG MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL ??

Have you done it? Why? Southeast Spring UFO Retreat is scheduled at LCCC for March 29-30&31st and you will not get an early invitation to join us if your membership is not active!! You can do it on line at www.wsqg.org, by picking up a membership brochure at Around the Block or at any CHQ meeting or by contacting me and I will supply you with the brochure. Shoot, I will even mail it for you! Daenette More, 307-
