Note from the President

This year has been going by very quickly for me, so I stopped to think of all that has happened at CHQ and what remains for the year.

We have two classes which are coming up, one in early September and the other in late October. The first is paper-piecing on Sept. 7th taught by Marilyn Lanham. I am excited to have an opportunity to use this technique again in a class. The second class is being taught by Alice Kay Arnett and is a wall hanging-sized feathered star. Stars are among my favorite type blocks so this should also be another great class. (See full details below).

The CHQ Board has been a busy group this year and lots of ideas have been discussed. I believe they are good food for thought. These may be ideas that the new Board will want to consider next year. Here are a few of them:

1. Have only 1 meeting per month.
2. Have 1 evening meeting and 1 daytime (not weekend) meeting per month.
3. Have the CHQ Board meeting on the same day but prior to the regular meeting. (This would eliminate an extra evening for the Board members to attend).
4. Eliminate snacks at the meetings. (Continue ice cream social and/or December end of year celebration).
5. Raise the dues to $25 per year.
6. Pay for advertising in the newspaper.
7. Start an Instagram account in an effort to attract new members from the younger crowd.

I would welcome any thoughts any of you have on the above suggestions or on any other suggestions you might have. You may send an email to the CHQ email by clicking on the "Contact Us" button on the website or you may send an email directly to me at catljam@msn.com.

Happy Quilting,
Cathy James
