Dear Members,

Hope this finds you all well. Spring has arrived and everyone is slowly getting vaccinated. Hopefully we will get back to normal soon! We have had a little mix up with the boy scouts at the church. It seems that they have been scheduled at the same time. Marilyn is out due to chemotherapy so they have volunteers helping do her job. We will get Allison hall on the first Monday and use a smaller room for the Board meetings. We are giving the minister a list of the dates we have reserved the church. Hopefully Marilyn will be able to come back!

Cynthia has done a great job with the quilt show and has lots of committees working hard! She still needs all of our help so make sure to sign up! Just a reminder, the show is on August 12, 13, and 14 so mark your calendars!

The Art Walk is June 10 from 5:00 pm to 8:00 pm. We have been asked to participate so ladies, let's get out and show off our many talents! Carole Gardner and I will be hand quilting.

The program for June is Kelly Gallagher-Abbott. We will be taking her to dinner at 5:00 at Guadalajara on Lincolnway. If you would like to join us for dinner, call Debbie Baldwin so we have room for everyone. Debbie has a lot of really exciting programs lined up for us this year. Hope you all come to enjoy them!

Community Quilts

May Distribution of Community Quilts

We had so many quilts handed in at our meeting May 3rd, I had Char pick them up! There may be more by end of month when she usually receives them. 30 is our biggest month that I remember! And there are more that need finishing.

Thanks to all you members who took time to make extra baby quilts when asked, the new members who are donating for the first time, and for you who are clearing out your stash! Wow!

THANKS to ALL of you!

Donna D.

- 🧵 December 7, 2021 – “Christmas Party & Gift Exchange”
  - 🧵 Not So Attractive Fat Quarter Activity Reveal

CHQ invites members to participate in the “The Gift that Gives Back”

“The Gift that Gives Back”
We all may have heard that saying that there is no such thing as ugly fabric. However, we all have seen some or have some fabric in our stash that, in our opinion, disputes that very statement! Join in the guild’s FUN factor by bringing one “not so attractive” (that’s politically correct for ugly) fat quarter to the June 7, 2021 meeting. Please pin an address label or a piece of paper with your name onto the fat quarter. If you are unable to attend that meeting and still want to participate, email Di at quilttherapy@gmail.com to make delivery arrangements. We’ll announce the details of this FUN activity at the June meeting. The more the merrier, quilters. This is one guild activity that you’ll want to be a part of!
Di

2nd CHANCE: If you forgot your “Not So Attractive” fat quarter last month you have one more chance to participate. Bring it to the June Club Meeting. You won’t want to miss this... it will be part of December’s Program.

Denim Quilts

Presented by JoEllen Mass and CHQ Members

JoEllen Mass presented Denim Quilts. She told us how she seam rips all the jeans she works with and incorporates them into her quilts. She had piles of jean scraps to show as examples of what she works with. Sometimes she puts little labels in the pockets. Although she sadly admitted she never found cash in any of the jeans she ripped. She did, however, point out that you should save every part of the jeans because you may find a surprise in the design and it can make your quilt even more special (hence the reason she seam rips vs cutting). Don't forget to use those special pants with flowers and stripes. It makes the quilt so colorful and you can play the "Guess What Decade" the jeans were from. JoEllen recommends that you use a jean or twill material on the back so it can be used as a utility quilt and easy to brush off all the grass and dirt when used outside. Although mink and fleece are soft grass and dirt likes to stay put on them. Thank you JoEllen for sharing your Denim Quilts and your methods. These are wonderful memory quilts.

Show and Tell went LIVE for May

Left and below: Debbie B. presented a fun color version of the Hunter Star quilt. Then she showed off by showing her Christmas Tree panel quilt. You can never be too early as a quilter.

Left: Another show off. Just kidding. Angela is just late... but she did finish this Round Tuit quilt for her daughter Autumn. Autumn wanted a winter quilt and now it is ready for Winter 2021. This was called the Winter Star by MSQC.

Right: Di finished a Community Quilt top. This was a precut kit from the Community Quilt wagon. If you want to participate please pick up a kit to piece, a top to quilt, or a quilt to bind.

Show and Tell

Continued

Below: Gwen H. presented four wonderful quilts to be given to the Community Quilts. So many CHQ members stepping up. Thank you Gwen.

Above: Dawn W. finished three Round Tuit tops. Way to knock them out!

Continued

Cynthia was proud to show off her beautiful strip fabric jacket along with all the baby quilts she made and gave to the CHQ Community Quilts. It's people like Cynthia that help make our quilt programs successful. Thank you for all your hard work and beautiful quilts.

May's Guests:
Shelby Carlson
Peggy Jorgensen
Heather Haas

Show and Tell

Continued

Left: Sue F. couldn't quite leave us yet. She brought her last quilt to her last CHQ meeting called the Spectacular Savannah quilt for our eyes to glaze on. Sue wanted to share her new address with the guild:

Sue Frerich

3447 Don Lorenzo Drive

Carlsbad CA 92010

We sure are going to miss you Sue!

Right: Sue brought her guest, Peggy J., who was helping her pack her sewing room for the big move. Peggy told us how a fellow quilting member of her guild had passed away and many of her quilts were put up for purchase. Peggy was lucky to purchase this Celtic Knots quilt and finish it. What a great way to treasure a sweet memory of a quilter's quilting friend. Thank you Peggy for sharing your friend's quilt and helping one of our CHQ members move.

Above and Right: Sylvia G. wasn't able to bring her wall art quilt and large quilt but still was able to show off her work through printed versions. Love the dogs Sylvia!

Continued

Left: Mari H. showcased her beautiful North American Bear Paw quilt. Such a vision. She even showed a few CHQ members after the meeting how she did the flange quilt binding.

Di found a YouTube clip if you want to learn how to make flange quilt binding.

https://quiltingwithlori.com/2019/03/26/make-flange-quilt-binding./

Right: JoEllen M. made a Log Cabin quilt to donate to the Community Quilts.

Someone special is going to love JoEllen's quilt.

Thank you JoEllen for being such a delight during your presentation of Denim quilts and gifting this beautiful quilt to the Community.

CHQ Block of the Month

June 2021 BOM: Snowball Variation

Remember to share your block. No one shared their block from last month. If you don't like the block, we'll join us anyway and replace the block with another 9 1/2-inch block. Try a block you always wanted to try!

COMING UP NEXT FOR June's BOM...

CHQ Quilting Tips

Quick Quilting tip from the Newsletter Editor:

Try piecing together new blocks... the ones you always wanted to try but were a little worried it was too hard or you already had enough quilt projects going on. Just try the one block.

- ————— Make a purse with your tested block(s)
- ————— Make a few blocks add borders and turn it into a community quilt
- ————— Make a quilt wall hanging out few blocks or one large block
- ————— Make a coaster for your table or a pot holder
- ————— Make an item out of the tested block for the Quilt Show Boutique
- ————— Get some friends together and make a few orphan blocks and share with each other. Doesn't have to be the same block... just the same unfinished size

Quilt Show Boutique

At the June meeting we will have all information ready to distribute including dates & location for drop off of items for sale and tags for members to do their pricing before drop off. Members donating will determine the price of the items. If you are uncertain about pricing please ask members with experience in boutique sales. We will have help available with pricing at the June meeting.

The options on the split are:

1.) 75% to person donating, 25% to CHQ

Or

2.) if you wish, 100% to CHQ.

More details, including information on how to sell a quilt that is being exhibited will be available at the June meeting.

As in the past, we are asking for donations for baked items to sell in the boutique. Those food items are given out of your kindness, 100% of the proceeds to CHQ and will need to be securely wrapped. You need not price those items—they will be priced by boutique workers. We will pass a schedule in July asking members to sign up to work in the boutique.

Thank you in advance to all members bringing items for sale in the boutique.
