Patchwork Update

NOVEMBER 2021

Dedicated to encouraging and broadening quilter's creativity, sharing quilting knowledge, exhibiting quilting accomplishments and contributing to the community.

Dear Members,

Oh my gosh! Is it Fall or Winter? I don't think Mother Nature can decide. Lots going on in the Guild right now. Hope everyone can participate in some of the activities.

Bring a monetary donation to the November meeting. We are going to take free will donations in memory of Lu Hart. We will give all the money to the Davis hospice.

Consider running for an office. All offices except the Vice President of programs are open. We have all served our 2 years. We will vote at our December meeting. We will be going over the Bylaws in January. Di and Mary Ellen have volunteered to work on them. Any help will be appreciated. They will also work on some of our other forms i.e., membership form, sign in sheets, etc.

November 1 at 7:00pm, is our next meeting. We will have 4 tabletop clinics and a denim exchange. If you need denim or have some you would like to trade or just get rid of, please bring it. This is for our challenge quilt.

December 6 is our Christmas party. We will start at 6:00 pm as we are having a potluck. A signup sheet to bring food will be passed around at our Nov. meeting. We will have a gift exchange, $5 - $10, with a visit from Santa to pass the gifts out. Please wrap them. Food, fun, and the ugly squares will be part of the program. Please note the change of time, 6:00 pm.

Debbie has some great programs scheduled and classes for us. She will be passing around a signup sheet for the one on March 19 which will be presented by Di, panel quilt. I for one love panels! Remember, we have a library for everyone to use. Go to the back of the room to check out the many titles!

Please wear your name tags so everyone can get to know you by name. If you don't have one, Hello tags will be provided.

Hope to see you Nov. 1. Remember, masks if you feel more comfortable (not required), social distance, and if you don't feel well, stay home.

New Club Members

We have 3 new members to our guild.

Please welcome
Cathy Rogers, Terry Gore and Bobbie Estes.

Our membership total is now 80. ~Helen J.

Newsletter Changes

Thank you to everyone who has supported me in making these newsletters this year. I have learned so much. There will not be a Newsletter in December as already planned. However, because the newsletter editor must get the January issue completed during Christmas the CHQ Board has agreed to January being the new Month of NO newsletter. Ilka will be taking over the newsletter and has asked for inputs, articles, and such on the 2nd Wednesday of the month.

Laramie County Library Quilting Event

Calling all quilters!

BYOQ – Bring your quilting project for a modern take on a classic, the quilting bee! Come to work on your own projects, see some friends, share some memories, make some new ones, and see what our quilting community is up to.

AND, if your fabric stash could use refreshing, bring some pieces to swap, trade and take home. Stay for an hour or stay all day. Big tables for big projects, light snacks and beverages, and a relaxing atmosphere will be provided. All experience levels welcome!

Can't wait to see you there!

Thanks again!

Angie W.

I BEQUEATH YOU THIS QUILT

This quilt with stitches strong and true,
Holds all the love I have for you.
No antique treasure or work of art,
Just a simple gift from a quilter's heart.
Bright patches with some dark mixed in,
The way my love for you has been.
Joy and pride-some worry too.
I spent many evenings thinking of you,
As I placed each stitch with patient care,
I thought of you and breathed a prayer,
That God would keep us safe tonight,
And show us the way to guide us right.
I'm gone now, and my job is through,
And the quilt is bound and finished too.
It holds my love, and faith and care,
To travel with you everywhere.
It may not seem important now,
But keep it safely anyhow.
And when there's no one else to care,
You'll find my love still waiting there,
To hold you warmly for a while,
And see you through a time of trail.
No antique treasure or work of art,
Just a simple gift from a quilter's heart.
Be sure and watch the rainbow that follows the rain,
And think of my quilt once again and again.

Community Quilts

Donna D.

Here's the second half of the quilts we finished in October. A crib quilt, 4 large receiving blankets, 2 lap quilts & 3 twin quilts. Thank you to all who worked on them! Thanks also to all took kits to make tops that we hope will be returned at next meeting so there's time to quilt & bind them before they're needed.

Char got a load of quilts at our meeting that were done earlier! She has requests for many now that winter is approaching.

CHAR NOLAN, DISTRIBUTION

Quilts were delivered in October to Wyoming Seniors, Safe Harbor, and to Cheyenne Kiwanis for fundraising. The Wyoming Seniors have over 200 clients and are always happy to receive any quilts we can give them I delivered the children's quilts that I had to accumulate them in November and early December. They YMCA had their fundraiser in October and Cheyenne Kiwanis will have their fundraiser November 11th. We donated quilts for both of those events. Thanks again to everyone who works on Community Quilts.

Community Quilts Accepted Sizes

Baby: 42 by any size
Lap/Youth: 45 or more by anything but less than twin
Twin: 63 by 87
Double: 78 by 87
Queen: 84 by 92
King: 100 by 92

IT'S ELECTION TIME

New officers are to be elected at our December meeting to take office on January 1, 2022. Positions for election are President, President Elect, Secretary, and Treasurer. Please see the Bylaws under "Forms and Info" at the bottom of the website (<http://chquilters.org/>) for duty descriptions for these positions. While there, please also note the list of Additional Board Member titles and duties. Should any of those interest you, or should you have any questions, please contact President Deb O'Grady. Also, feel free to visit with the member currently holding the position that has caught your attention for detailed information from an experienced volunteer. The Newsletter Editor, Webpage, and Facebook Administrator positions have already been filled for next year. Step up and serve to continue this organization into the new year!

JINGLE BELL JINGLE BELL, IT'S ORNAMENT MAKING TIME AGAIN!

Cowboys and Angels

Once again, CHQ will be sponsoring a Christmas tree for the Magic City Enterprises' Festival of Trees fundraiser. This corporation provides support to people with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Your board members served as the initial committee and agreed upon the theme of "Cowboys and Angels" with a color theme of Wyoming BROWN and GOLD. The tree will be six to seven foot tall, bearing a crocheted angel tree topper donated by Donna D. and Judy G. has volunteered to do some special gold bead work. Coordinator, Carole G. will be circulating a signup sheet at our October 4, 2021 meeting for 6 volunteers to physically decorate the tree on a date yet to be determined. There is a need for 200 handmade ornaments to fill our tree.

In 2019, the CHQ tree drew the largest bid of the evening bringing in $1,000 for our charity. Let's try to make that happen once again! Your brown and gold cowboy or angel themed ornaments may be brought to the November 1, 2021 meeting or delivered to Carol G. at her residence (address listed in your membership roster) OR to Cynthia H. at her place of business

Crazy Motor Sports 2118 E Lincoln Way
(open M-W 2:00-6:00 p.m. or Saturdays 10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.).

The deadline for ornament delivery is Wednesday, November 24, 2021. Please ensure that your ornaments have a hanging loop no greater than 1 inch in length, thus making the drop ½". This request is due to the mandate that all ornaments be wired to the tree for secure mobility when being delivered to the bidding winner.

Pick-a-Pocket Denim Challenge - 2022

November 1st meeting - Calling any denim collectors!

The Challenge Committee is hosting a Denim Swap during the Nov 1st meeting. We invite you to bring denim you'd like to share with others to help us with this swap. We will set up tables in the back of the room, for you to display what you have to share, (just like we do the opportunity table). We ask only that you take home anything you brought that doesn't get picked up.

Feel free to join the Pick-a-Pocket Denim Challenge that night for $10 and gather some denim to help you complete your own challenge quilt. I plan to bring front and back pockets to share, as well as some pairs of jeans, and JoEllen has a stash of denim to share as well. If you have denim yardage you want to share, that is great. And if you have colors of denim, bring those as well. Thank for helping us encourage creativity in this year's challenge.

Can't wait to see what you have hidden away in your fabric collections.

CHQ Quilting Tips

Quick Quilting tips from the Newsletter Editor:

Recommend Taking a CHQ Position

I was hesitant taking the Newsletter and Facebook group over but I'm glad I did. I learned a lot and got to work with my friend Di a lot. I learned to work with different people who have different skills sets and levels. I won't say I wasn't frustrated but I was always proud of my finished Newsletter. I was always happy to ensure everyone in the guild would know what events were coming up and what our guild was doing for others. I never went to a board meeting before, but when I did, I started to learn the WHYS (I asked soooo many questions). Why does the guild meet at 7 and not earlier? What does a Quilt Mother for the quilt show do? I got to know members better and gave my input. Reasons are not always the reasons you may think. So, I HIGHLY recommend taking a position. Be more than a member if you can. If there is something you would love to add or maybe something you don't like come to board meetings. The ladies who have taken on the board positions are amazing because they are not easy jobs. But challenges can also provide an overwhelming feeling of success and joy. Come join us... there is room for everyone even if you offer to be an alternate.

Thank you for letting me be your Newsletter Editor for 2021 ~ Angela McPherson

Not so Attractive (aka UGLY) Fat Quarter Fun

It's almost drumroll time! We are on our countdown to Christmas for our Ugly Fat Quarter Projects to be revealed!!! As you may recall, we asked that your finished project be wrapped and the number of the bag which you received your fat quarter in be written on the outside. Keep your project confidential for the final fun factor reveal at our DECEMBER 6, 2021 meeting. A big thank you to all who elected to participate in this fun project.
