Election Coming - December meeting

~ Thanks to those that are Volunteering. ~

November Club Meeting

Monday, November 7 at 7 p.m.

Our November program will be a Trunk Show by member, Mari Harpold. She will be sharing quilts that she has made over the years. Her quilting journey has been a varied one so there should be something of interest to everyone. Debbie Baldwin

December Program

Our December Meeting will be our annual Christmas Party and gift exchange. We are asking members to bring a pot-luck dish to share with the group. So we don't get all desserts, we've divided dishes into categories according to last names.

Pot Luck categories are:

A-G Dessert
H-O Main Course
P-Z Side Dish

Meeting starts early!
6 p.m.

The guild will provide paper goods, utensils and water. The gift exchange is to be a wrapped sewing related item valued $10.00. Please put a tag on the gift with your name so the recipient knows who the gift is from. Debbie Baldwin

Please pay 2023 Dues now

Now is the time to renew your membership. Please fill out the form at the end of this newsletter and pay your dues soon. Thanks so much.

Row or Round Robin Project

Please bring your Round Robin Projects (finished or not) to share at the November meeting!

COMMUNITY QUILTS

Recently a member of the guild commented to me saying, she thought "the community quilts had improved in there appearance and workmanship. Nothing boosts the morale of someone in need than a quilt that has been well made and beautifully designed. Isn't it wonderful that our work doesn't look hastily done or thrown together.

Kudos to our group, on the great job you are doing making the quilts. The community quilt committee appreciates your efforts.

The quilts we make are greatly appreciated by those in the community that receive them. They deserve the best we can give them.

We hope to maintain this level of quality so here are some reminders for us all as we make community quilts. Do the best job you know how to do. We are not all on the same level of quilting abilities. Do not compare your work to others. Just do YOUR best. All our work is not perfect all the time. We know that. If a technique is giving you some problems, ask for help. Keep the 1/4 inch seam allowance. Community quilts are often used hard and washed often. Construction counts a lot. Try to get all the corners to match. Follow the instructions. You will have beautiful results. Donna Dolan and I are willing to help any time you need it so if you have any questions. Just give us a call.

Thank you again for all the hard work you all do for the community quilts.

Carole Gardner

2023 Quilt Show Corner

November Update:

Last month, I gave you a challenge. Did you read and remember? We as a committee would like you to join us in beefing up our Boutique and Bake Sale. This is in conjunction with you participating by putting quilts in the quilt show, selling tickets for our Opportunity Quilt, volunteering to man the show, etc. Do you have time to do everything? No, you don't. But we as the Quilt Show Committee want you to have enough options and opportunities that this coming year will fly by with new things you have learned, people in our community that you have helped and the new friends in quilting you have gained. All this can be accomplished in a fun way of volunteering, short term, and fun.

What was my challenge? To find something at a flea market, craft sale, Christmas House or from your magazines to make for our Boutique. Or buy a new magazine for inspiration. In other words, GO SHOPPING! Or spend some time perfecting some of your baking recipes as the Boutique Bakery will be open all three days of the quilt show. Have I reminded you of an idea that you think you could contribute to? If not, talk to our Boutique Chairman, Char Nolan, about her experience in running a very successful Boutique. Or, talk to our President, Cynthia Helmer, about where and when craft fairs are, as she shows at many of them. From Nov. to Christmas you can have fun scouting out projects to make for our Boutique.

All of the things that I have mentioned are not to overwhelm you, but to show you the possibilities that can be explored. Above all, we must remember, if we can only be one thing. BE KIND! Daenette More

Next Quilt Show 2023 meeting will be at Laramie County Library on October 27 at 2:00-3:30 p.m. in the Windflower Room. Come and join us.

MAGIC CITY FESTIVAL OF TREES

Remember that November 7th meeting is the deadline for ornaments for our tree. I appreciate all of you helping with things. There will be a drawing for two tickets to the dinner and auction. Carole Gardner 631-7388.

Please bring ornaments to the November meeting.

October Program - Laura Shotwell - Antique Quilts

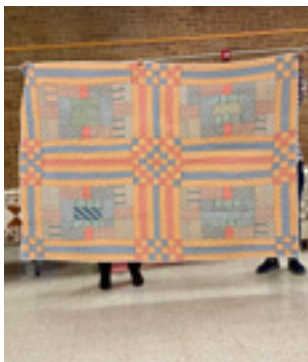

The October program featured a guest speaker, Laura Shotwell, the owner of Figleaf in Fort Collins.

She brought her collection of Antique Quilts from the 1800's to share with us. Below is a sampling of Laura's extensive collection.

We learned that many of these quilts were made of fabric purchased specifically for each project, rather than using scraps as is commonly thought. Surprised us a bit.

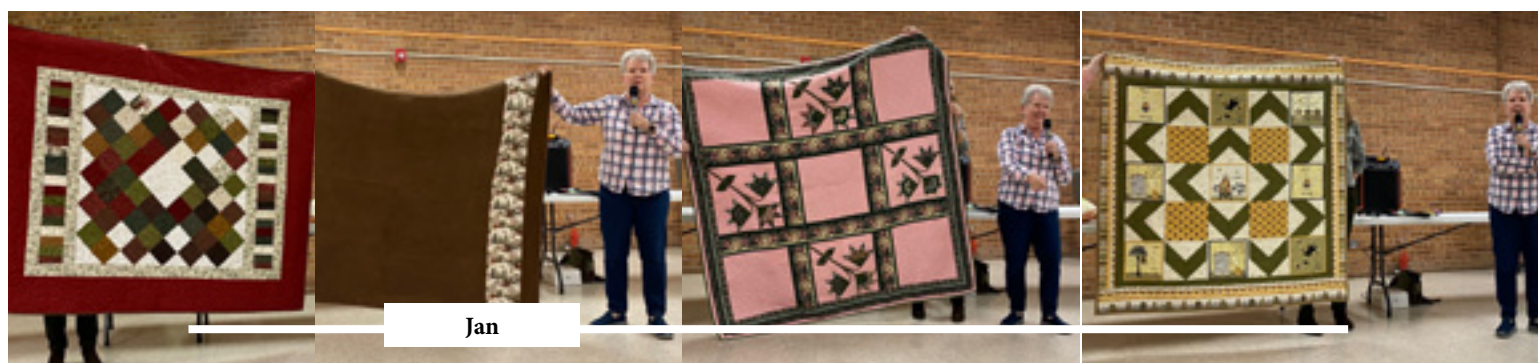

She explained the difference between autograph quilts and memory quilts. We saw many variations of lone star quilts. She shared a child's quilt full of animals made with broderie perse technique. We saw a quilt made of scraps of clothing from a time when things were scarce during a war and so much more.

All in all there was a lot of information, but we were still left wanting more.

Show and Tell

Thanks for sharing your work with us.
