

Cheyenne Heritage Quilters' 27th Annual Quilt Show

This year, after over 20 years of the hospitality of the Cheyenne Civic Center, we are moving the show to First United Methodist Church, 108 E. 18th St., in downtown Cheyenne, where we have the opportunity to redesign the show, thus our theme:

RECYCLE TRADITION

We invite you to enter your antique, art, bed and wall quilts, even quilted clothing. New are the options to have your quilt professionally critiqued and/or offered for sale.

There will be more room to display quilts and more lighting. Quilt stands are being refurbished. We'll have a new system for hanging quilts on a lovely brick wall.

We'll be showing off what our guild has accomplished this year with a display of Community Quilts and Challenge Quilts.

Members will once again be offering Silent Auction items, with the option of "Buy Now" prices for the convenience of out of town visitors. And as always, we'll be selling tickets for another wonderful Raffle Quilt.

On Saturday we will have vendors, two from Cheyenne and two from Colorado. There will be demonstrations of different quilt making techniques every hour.

We hope you'll join in the fun!

The non-CHQ members' entry fee is $5 per quilt or they may choose to join the guild for $20, good for the remainder of the current membership year and the 2011-12 year beginning Sept. 1.
2. All quilt entries are eligible for judging by trained judges from the Colorado Quilting Council. A one-page critique will be attached to the quilt entry when it is released at the end of the show. The $5 per quilt judging fee will be put into a purse for 1st, 2nd and 3rd place Judge's Choice awards.
3. Any quilt entry may be listed for sale in the program and on the quilt's display tag. Quilts must be paid for in full and no holds will be honored. CHQ will collect payment from the buyer and deliver the quilt to the buyer at the end of the show. Sellers should expect a check for 80 percent of the sale price shortly after the show. CHQ retains a 20 percent commission for advertising & exhibiting costs.
4. All quilts must have a hanging sleeve attached made from a 4-inch fabric tube. For directions, please contact Barb, 307-634-0463, bgorges4@msn.com.

6. All quilts must be delivered in a cloth bag or pillow case identified with the entrant's name and phone number and the quilt folded and inserted so as to show the entry form Quilt Identification Tag pinned to the lower right corner of the back of the quilt. Bea Dersham will accept quilts at the CHQ meeting Aug. 15 or delivered or mailed to her home Aug. 16-21. To make arrangements please call her at 307-637-7195.
