President's Message - Diana Clark

Isn't it a great time to sew and start making quilts for our Quilt Show next year (by the way we need a Quilt Show Chair, know anybody that might be interested?) and don't forget the county and state fairs. We'll be sure to let you know when you can register for them next year.

The first day of Autumn is Sep. 22nd. A cooling effect on the country. Fingers crossed.

I am so ready for fall but I don't think summer was long enough. My youngest grandchildren, commonly referred to as the Littles, will be starting school on Aug. 23rd. A senior, sophomore, and a 4th grader. Sep. 10th is Grandparent's Day, so play with those grandchildren and those without grandchildren take your kids to see their grandparents.

The Farmer's Almanac says September 16-19 will be pleasant, then turning unsettled over Wyoming: some wet snow over Wind River Range and Big Horn Mountains. No surprise there.

There is an appliqué workshop on September 14th that you still have time to get into. See Gwen.

And there is a SE WSQG Retreat at the end of the month. See Cindi.

Quilting is the Answer, I don't care what the question is!

September 3 Program - Marla Marx - How to Make an Old Pattern New

Marla Marx is from Scottsbluff, Nebraska, in the northern Panhandle of Nebraska. She grew up learning to sew, crochet, knit, tat and embroider. Her mom, sister and grandmothers were great teachers and examples for "keeping your hands busy".

Marla has become addicted to quilting. Ten years ago she started teaching a "technique" class called Illusionary Bars for her local quilt guild. Illusionary Bars has since morphed to a stand-alone mini-quilt taught to groups in Nebraska and three groups in Wyoming.

In her spare time, Marla enjoys teaching classes and demonstrating rulers. One of her favorite things to do is study a pattern to see if there is an easier way to do it. This has morphed into the class she will presenting at the September meeting.

Marla has received ribbons and awards in Nebraska at the Panhandle Quilt Guild Show, Scotts Bluff County and Nebraska State Fairs. Marla is a member of the Panhandle Quilt Guild, Nebraska State Quilt Guild and Wyoming State Quilt Guild.

CHQ will be taking our presenter, Marla Marx, out to dinner on Tuesday, September 3rd at 5 p.m. at Paris West, located at 1714 Central Avenue in downtown Cheyenne. The restaurant entrance is on 18th Street - directly across from the front of the church; the Central entrance is to the bar (which you can walk through back to the restaurant, if you would prefer). Please know you will be responsible for the cost of your own meal. CHQ will pick up the tab for Marla Marx only.

RSVP to Gwen Harris by Friday, August 30th, 2024, if you would like to join us at dinner.

CHQ's GARAGE SALE

When: Saturday, October 12, 2024

Time: 10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.

Where: Little Bear Inn

Light lunch and finger foods provided

Don't know what to do with that piece of material you picked up a few years ago that you don't LOVE anymore? Or, the kit that just doesn't tickle your fancy? What about that ruler or gadget you bought that you just don't use? Here is your chance to clean out your craft/sewing area.

Please bring your Garage Sale items to the September 3rd and/or the October 7th guild meeting, or call, text or email Marci Rulon, 401-359-6235, email: MyLilithAnn@yahoo.com.

1. Members may sign-up for their own table at the next meeting. Then price, set-up and sell their own items at their table with 25% of sales going to CHQ. Members will take all unsold items back with them at the end of the day.
2. Members may donate their items to CHQ to price, set-up and sell at the garage sale with 100% of the sales going to the club. All unsold items will be donated to the jail, to Delta Kappa Gammas book sale or some other group.

New Members Corner - Helen Jarvis

No new members in August, so take a minute to welcome someone new to you!

A note to new members about Elections and Volunteering to help the club.

Our club holds elections every year for President, Vice-President (Programs Chair), Secretary, and Treasurer. We also have many appointed positions that support these positions.

If you have an interest in volunteering for something more in the club, please ask any member, board member about what it entails.

There is also information in the Bylaws booklet posted online at chquilters.org

By the way, if you are a new member and haven't received a packet with instructions for how to make your nametag, please let someone at the front desk know.

Website Info - Judy Gilmore

Our password protected Roster has been updated recently.

You can find the link to this PDF at the bottom of our webpage (chquilters.org). Click on the words "Members Only" in the list of Forms and Info and enter the password when prompted. You can print the roster, or save it to your computer, but you will need your password each time you open the document.

The password is still the same and if you have forgotten it, talk to Judy Gilmore at a meeting. We ask that you keep this password secure.

If you have trouble or have questions, please call Judy Gilmore.

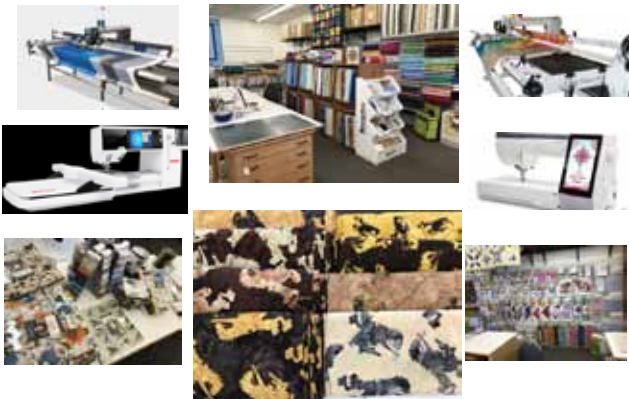

Thanks to all the CHQ members who sat with the opportunity quilt and sold tickets at the Wyoming State Quilt Show and at the Laramie County Fair. These sales are a huge benefit to our club. They fund our programs, pay for things we buy for Community Quilts, and more. Ticket sales are especially helpful in the years when we don't have a Quilt Show.

We hope you will consider volunteering to sell tickets at any upcoming events. Watch for Sign-ups at the meetings.

Community Quilts

- Donna Dolan

We have quilts enough for Habitat. They are building 3 homes this year, so may need 15 quilts. We've also given to seniors, county foster children, Safe House, Magic City, and Women's VA (babies). We're open to find any other agencies that serve the needy in our county. Just mention them to Laraine or Donna D.

Thanks for all the hard work.
